Dear Osage Member:

The purpose of this temporary program is to provide financial assistance on behalf of Osage members responsible for household utilities, while the Osage member adjusts their monthly finances to afford the utility. Assistance is available to Osage members who do not qualify for federal program utility assistance.

The program is not an emergency program, please continue to pay your utility bills. The Osage Nation Treasury Department will issue the payment directly to the utility vendor. Please read and complete each section of the attached application. Completed applications contain the following attachments:

- Complete and signed application
- Current Energy bill in the name of the Osage member

You may apply with the digital online application or complete a paper application and email to financial-assist@osagenation-nsn.gov or mail / deliver to the office at 239 W. 12th Street Pawhuska, Oklahoma. Office hours are Monday – Friday 8:00 am to 4:30 pm, excluding holidays.

For questions please consult the FAQ's listed on the Osage Nation website or call 918-287-5325. We look forward to assisting you.

Best Regards,

Andrea M. Kemble, Director
Osage Nation Financial Assistance Department
